1. During the night of 13-14 May in the town of Doksy about twenty placards were stuck on the walls of the houses in the area of the square. The placards measured 20 x 30 cm., were on white paper, and bore the following mimeographed inscription:

"To all citizens:

- a) Communist Tyranny is near an end; believe in the return of freedom soon.
- b) To all members of the Communist Party:
 - (1) Do not appear on the streets after dark.
 - (2) Do not denounce other people and do not report anti-state activities.
 - (3) Do not take your revenge on defenseless people."

2. On the bottom of the placard, below the writing, was a round stamp with the state lion in the centre and the words: "Partisans' Brigade 'Petr Zenkl'" (Partyzanska Brigada Petr Zenkl) surrounding it. The placards were removed during the morning by the SNB.
